Christopher Columbus was born in 1451 (over 500 years ago) in Italy.

He grew up on a port (a town or city by the water where ships stop to load or unload cargo)

When he was 13, he went on his first journey at sea. Columbus was a great map reader and he thought he could travel West to China.

The king and queen of Spain gave him the money for his journey. In 1492, Christopher Columbus and his crew discovered the new world.

He was born in 1304 and became a Moroccan explorer.

He undertook a famous 24 year journey that took him to the Middle East, China and Europe.

He recorded his travels in a famous book called the Rihla.
